

The Grayson County Commissioner of the Revenue Office is seeking a part-time person to work very limited hours. Applicants should have good computer knowledge/skills, experience working with the public, and be able to work in a multi-faceted office atmosphere. Pay is minimum wage with no benefits. If interested, a completed Virginia state application (found on-line) should be mailed to P.O. Box 126, Independence, VA 24348.